A MONTH OF REFLECTION, GRATITUDE AND COMMUNITY

WHAT IS RAMADAN?

Ramadan is the ninth month of the Islamic lunar calendar and the holiest time of the year for Muslims. It is a month of fasting, prayer, self-reflection, and acts of kindness. During Ramadan, Muslims fast from dawn to sunset, focusing on spiritual growth, gratitude, and community.

THE MEANING & PURPOSE OF RAMADAN

Ramadan is not just about abstaining from food and drink; it is about developing Taqwa (God-consciousness), purifying the soul, and practicing self-discipline. It is a time to strengthen one's relationship with Allah and cultivate empathy for those in need.

Fasting is an act of obedience to Allah's command in the Quran:

“O you who have believed, fasting has been prescribed for you as it was prescribed for those before you, so that you may attain righteousness.” (Surah Al-Baqarah 2:183)

KEY RAMADAN TERMS

- Sawm (صوم): Fasting from dawn to sunset.
- Suhoor (سحور): The pre-dawn meal before fasting begins.
- Iftar (إفطار): The meal at sunset to break the fast, often with dates and water.
- Taraweeh (تراويح): Special nightly prayers performed during Ramadan.
- Laylat al-Qadr (ليلة القدر): The Night of Decree in the last ten nights, considered the holiest night of the year.
- Zakat (زكاة): A form of charity that is obligatory for eligible Muslims, often given during Ramadan.
- Sadaqah (صدقة): Voluntary charity, highly encouraged in this month.

THE ROLE OF MOON SIGHTING

Since Islam follows the lunar calendar, Ramadan begins and ends based on the sighting of the new crescent moon (Hilal). This can lead to slight variations in start and end dates across different regions.

EID AL-FITR: THE CELEBRATION AFTER RAMADAN

The end of Ramadan is marked by Eid al-Fitr (عيد الفطر), the Festival of Breaking the Fast. It is a time of celebration, gratitude, and togetherness, featuring:

- A special prayer in congregation (Salat al-Eid).
- Giving Zakat al-Fitr, a mandatory charity to support those in need.
- Joyful gatherings with family and friends, sharing meals and gifts.
